Education for Empowerment

You're invited to a free event! Register Today!

Parkinson's IQ + You is a free event from The Michael J. Fox Foundation designed to empower attendees to manage the disease, learn about the latest research and connect with local resources. These events are fully accessible and are designed for people at every stage in their journey with Parkinson's disease. At the event you can:

WHO:

People living with Parkinson's disease, families and care partners

WHERE:

WHEN:

BUILD YOUR KNOWLEDGE

Interactive sessions including panel discussions and Q&A will help you navigate living with Parkinson's, making the most of doctors' visits, building a care team, learning more about the latest Parkinson's research and how you can participate in a study.

CONNECT WITH THE COMMUNITY

The Parkinson's Partner Expo offers attendees access to local resources for patients and care partners, including exercise programs, support groups, care options, research opportunities and more.
